

Challenging — Part 7 — Answer sheet

<https://naplan-spelling.netlify.app/challenging-lc/part/7/>

Name: _____ Date: _____

121. _____

131. _____

122. _____

132. _____

123. _____

133. _____

124. _____

134. _____

125. _____

135. _____

126. _____

136. _____

127. _____

137. _____

128. _____

138. _____

129. _____

139. _____

130. _____

140. _____

Answer key

121. pessimistic

Her pessimistic outlook meant she assumed the trip would be cancelled before it even began.

122. carcasses

Vultures circled above the carcasses left behind after the drought.

123. euphoric

The crowd was euphoric after their team scored the winning goal in the final second.

124. colossal

Rebuilding after the flood was a colossal task that took the town two years.

125. accelerating

The cyclist felt the bike accelerating as the road tipped downhill.

126. plateau

After weeks of steady gains, her fitness seemed to reach a plateau.

127. rhythm

The drummer kept a steady rhythm that the whole crowd could dance to.

128. resuscitate

Paramedics worked for several minutes to resuscitate the man before his pulse returned.

129. judicial

The judicial system requires that every accused person receive a fair trial.

130. courageous

The firefighter made a courageous dash back into the burning building to save the dog.

131. thoroughly

She thoroughly checked every page of the contract before signing it.

132. recognisable

Even in disguise, his distinctive limp made him instantly recognisable.

133. lacerate

The barbed wire fence lacerated his arm as he climbed over it in the dark.

134. correspond

The two witnesses' accounts of the accident did not correspond at all.

135. ubiquitous

Smartphones have become so ubiquitous that few people remember life without them.

136. benevolent

The benevolent old man donated most of his fortune to the local orphanage.

137. intriguing

The scientist found the strange rock formations so intriguing that she cancelled her flight home to study them.

138. luminescent

The luminescent jellyfish glowed a soft blue as it drifted through the dark water.

139. delicious

The aroma of the delicious stew filled the whole kitchen.

140. nonchalant

Despite failing the test, he gave a nonchalant shrug and said he'd study harder next time.