

Challenging — Part 8 — Answer sheet

<https://naplan-spelling.netlify.app/challenging-lc/part/8/>

Name: _____ Date: _____

- | | |
|------------|------------|
| 141. _____ | 151. _____ |
| 142. _____ | 152. _____ |
| 143. _____ | 153. _____ |
| 144. _____ | 154. _____ |
| 145. _____ | 155. _____ |
| 146. _____ | 156. _____ |
| 147. _____ | 157. _____ |
| 148. _____ | 158. _____ |
| 149. _____ | 159. _____ |
| 150. _____ | 160. _____ |

Answer key

141. racquet

She restrung her racquet before the tournament began.

142. futile

Bailing water from the sinking rowboat with a cup proved futile once the hull cracked open.

143. belligerence

His belligerence during the meeting made it impossible to reach any agreement.

144. dependency

The nation's dependency on imported oil left it vulnerable to price shocks.

145. efficient

The new engine was far more efficient, using half the fuel of the old model.

146. definitely

She was definitely the fastest runner in the entire competition.

147. ghoul

In the old legend, a ghouel was said to haunt the cemetery gates after midnight.

148. environment

Factories were fined for dumping waste that damaged the local environment.

149. buoy

Swimmers were told not to go past the yellow buoy near the shore.

150. vertebrates

Fish, birds, and mammals are all classified as vertebrates.

151. molecule

A single molecule of water is made up of two hydrogen atoms and one oxygen atom.

152. malaria

Travellers to the region are advised to take tablets that help prevent malaria.

153. balk

Most buyers balk at a price tag that high.

154. personally

Personally, I thought the film was overrated, even though critics praised it.

155. incandescent

The filament inside the old incandescent bulb glowed white-hot when the switch was flicked on.

156. nuisance

The car alarm going off every night became a real nuisance for the whole street.

157. kayaking

We spent Saturday kayaking down the river, dodging rocks and paddling hard through the rapids.

158. decomposed

The fallen leaves had decomposed into rich soil by the following spring.

159. indecipherable

The doctor's handwriting on the prescription was so indecipherable that the pharmacist had to call and ask.

160. skulduggery

The auditors uncovered years of financial skulduggery hidden behind falsified receipts.