

Difficult — Part 6 — Answer sheet

<https://naplan-spelling.netlify.app/difficult-lc/part/6/>

Name: _____ Date: _____

101. _____

111. _____

102. _____

112. _____

103. _____

113. _____

104. _____

114. _____

105. _____

115. _____

106. _____

116. _____

107. _____

117. _____

108. _____

118. _____

109. _____

119. _____

110. _____

120. _____

Answer key

101. experience

Years of experience made the pilot calm during the storm.

102. rhyme

The poet chose 'moon' and 'June' because they rhyme perfectly.

103. hilarious

The comedian's final joke was so hilarious the whole room burst out laughing.

104. informative

The documentary was informative without being boring.

105. attention

The teacher clapped twice to get the class's attention before the lesson began.

106. oblige

The new safety law will oblige all cyclists to wear a helmet.

107. remnant

She sewed a cushion cover from a remnant of the old curtain fabric.

108. lullaby

The mother hummed a gentle lullaby until her baby drifted off to sleep.

109. wrinkle

He tried to iron out every wrinkle in his shirt before the interview.

110. rogue

A rogue wave suddenly swamped the small fishing boat.

111. history

Our class is learning about the history of ancient Egypt.

112. amuse

The clown tried to amuse the waiting children with a series of silly tricks.

113. principle

Honesty is a principle he refuses to compromise on, even under pressure.

114. hammock

She dozed off reading a book in the hammock between two palm trees.

115. key

She lost the key to the shed and had to climb through the window instead.

116. option

Taking the train was the fastest option, so we booked our tickets straight away.

117. tarantula

The zoo keeper let a huge tarantula crawl slowly across her glove.

118. gigantic

A gigantic oak tree towered over the small cottage.

119. decision

Choosing which university to attend was the biggest decision of his life.

120. personalities

The twins have completely different personalities, even though they look identical.