

Difficult — Part 10 — Answer sheet

<https://naplan-spelling.netlify.app/difficult-lc/part/10/>

Name: _____ Date: _____

181. _____

191. _____

182. _____

192. _____

183. _____

193. _____

184. _____

194. _____

185. _____

195. _____

186. _____

196. _____

187. _____

197. _____

188. _____

198. _____

189. _____

199. _____

190. _____

200. _____

Answer key

181. saxophone

He practised the saxophone every afternoon until the jazz solo sounded smooth.

182. library

She spent every Saturday afternoon reading quietly in the library.

183. effective

The new advertising campaign proved effective, and sales doubled.

184. medicine

The doctor prescribed medicine to help clear up his chest infection.

185. boundary

A row of tall hedges marked the boundary between the two properties.

186. absolutely

I am absolutely certain I locked the front door before we left.

187. engage

The teacher used games to engage the restless class.

188. graphics

The video game was praised for its stunning graphics.

189. frightened

The frightened kitten hid under the bed during the thunderstorm.

190. consider

Please consider all the options before you make your final decision.

191. defence

The lawyer built a strong defence based on the timeline of events.

192. ridiculous

It felt ridiculous to wear a raincoat when the sky was completely clear.

193. precious

The locket was her most precious possession, passed down from her grandmother.

194. terrible

The traffic was terrible, so we arrived an hour late for the wedding.

195. category

The librarian sorted each novel into its correct category on the shelf.

196. query

She sent an email to query the mistake on her electricity bill.

197. horrified

The neighbours were horrified when they saw the damage from the storm.

198. insane

It would be insane to go hiking without water in this heat.

199. scientific

The students followed a scientific method, recording every measurement in their experiment.

200. calm

The nurse spoke in a calm voice to reassure the frightened patient.