

Difficult — Part 5 — Answer sheet

<https://naplan-spelling.netlify.app/difficult-lc/part/5/>

Name: _____ Date: _____

81. _____

91. _____

82. _____

92. _____

83. _____

93. _____

84. _____

94. _____

85. _____

95. _____

86. _____

96. _____

87. _____

97. _____

88. _____

98. _____

89. _____

99. _____

90. _____

100. _____

Answer key

81. gnawed

The puppy gnawed on the old slipper until it fell apart.

82. mystic

The old temple was said to have a mystic power that calmed anyone who entered.

83. verdant

The valley was verdant after the wet season, every hillside a deep green.

84. celebration

The whole street joined the celebration for the town's centenary.

85. taught

My grandmother taught me how to knit a scarf last winter.

86. endangered

The panda is one of the world's most endangered animals.

87. organise

It took her all afternoon to organise the books on the shelf by author.

88. dangerous

Swimming near the rocks during a storm surge is extremely dangerous.

89. summoned

The principal summoned the two boys to her office after the incident.

90. explosion

A loud explosion echoed across the valley as the old bridge was demolished.

91. jeopardy

One wrong step on the icy ledge put the climber in jeopardy.

92. pleasure

Reading in the garden on a quiet afternoon gave her great pleasure.

93. shoulder

He carried his little sister on his shoulder so she could see over the crowd.

94. imagination

The young author's imagination filled the story with strange, wonderful creatures.

95. formal

Guests were asked to wear formal attire to the wedding.

96. recognise

I didn't recognise my old teacher until she called out my name.

97. success

Years of hard training led to her success at the state championships.

98. edible

The forager checked her guidebook to make sure the mushrooms were edible.

99. museum

The dinosaur skeletons at the museum drew crowds of excited children.

100. unexpectedly

Her favourite band unexpectedly walked into the cafe where she worked.