

Difficult — Part 15 — Answer sheet

<https://naplan-spelling.netlify.app/difficult-lc/part/15/>

Name: _____ Date: _____

281. _____

291. _____

282. _____

292. _____

283. _____

293. _____

284. _____

294. _____

285. _____

295. _____

286. _____

296. _____

287. _____

297. _____

288. _____

298. _____

289. _____

299. _____

290. _____

300. _____

Answer key

281. plait

She wore her long hair in a neat plait for the swimming carnival.

282. vegetation

Thick vegetation covered the hillside after weeks of steady rain.

283. chocolate

She melted the chocolate slowly so it wouldn't burn in the pan.

284. fibre

Wholegrain bread contains more fibre than white bread.

285. principal

The principal welcomed the new students at assembly on their first day.

286. favourite

Chocolate ice cream has always been my favourite dessert.

287. dessert

We shared a slice of chocolate cake for dessert after dinner.

288. breathless

He arrived breathless at the finish line after sprinting the final lap.

289. lyrebird

The lyrebird in the documentary perfectly copied the sound of a camera shutter.

290. origami

He folded a delicate paper crane using a traditional origami technique.

291. disappear

The rabbit seemed to disappear the moment it darted behind the hedge.

292. complete

It took him three hours to complete the last section of the puzzle.

293. exert

He had to exert all his strength to lift the fallen branch.

294. acknowledge

The captain had to acknowledge that the team's tactics needed to change.

295. vessel

The rescue vessel sailed out to search for the missing fishermen.

296. intention

It was never her intention to hurt his feelings, but her joke did.

297. complaining

The passengers kept complaining about the long delay on the runway.

298. circuit

The switch completes the circuit and lets electricity flow to the bulb.

299. wholly

The decision was wholly hers, and no one else influenced it.

300. pincer

The crab snapped its sharp pincer shut around the piece of bait.